PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the following statement is true and correct:

On May 16, 2008, at approximately 9:00 A.M., Border Patrol Agent J. Rambo and Supervisory Border Patrol Agent J. Sylva were conducting line watch duties near Potrero, California. Agents Rambo and Sylva responded to a citizen's call near an area known as the "Chicken Ranch". This area is located approximately five miles east of the Tecate Port of Entry and approximately 15 miles north of the United States/Mexico International Border. Undocumented immigrants commonly use this area to further their entry into the United States. Upon arrival into the area, Agents Rambo and Sylva spotted a large group of individuals north of their location. Agents Rambo and Sylva approached the 32 individuals and identified themselves as United States Border Patrol Agents and questioned each subject as to his or her citizenship. All subjects, including one later identified as the defendant Jorge Alberto VILLALOBOS-Bahena, admitted to being citizens of Mexico, illegally present in the United States. All subjects were arrested and taken to the Tecate Processing Center for further processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on October 27, 2007 through El Paso, Texas. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.

Executed on May 17, 2008 at 10:00 a.m.

Irene S. Aguirre
Senior Patrol Agent

On the basis of the facts presented in the probable cause statement consisting of 1 page(s), I find probable cause to believe that the defendant named in this probable cause statement committed the offense on May 16, 2008, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1326.
